Large character Townhouse with patio and terrace - Oliva - OCTH235400 Located on a quiet street but very close to San Roc square we offer this unique property! The front door opens to a bright hallway with a single bedroom to the left and a twin/ double to the right. This continues through to an open plan kitchen / dining room with a fireplace. There is a large bathroom off the dining room. Patio doors open to a good size open courtyard with a small plunge pool (which needs some attention) There is a covered dining area / store room to the rear. Stairs lead from the covered terrace to the first floor where we have a master bedroom with en-suite overlooking the courtyard. Alternatively our front stairs take us to a large lounge with vaulted ceilings and a log burner! This is really a lovely room! From this floor we have stairs to the roof terrace with a conservatory and some fabulous views down to the church, sea and over the old town. The property needs a bit of TLC and I am not sure how insulated the glass doors will be in winter, but in spite of this....viewing recommended!
