This fabulous country house is situated on the edge of the village of Torre del Rico and a short walk from the local bar restaurant. It's 10 minutes drive from Pinoso town and about an hours drive from Alicante airport. The house has been totally renovated to an extremely high standard and everything is beautifully finished. The property has a new roof and the ceiling in the upper floor is fully insulated. The property benefits from gas central heating, internet, telephone and mains water and electric. It also has an efficient and modern solar panel that provides free hot water from March till November. The cosy lounge dining room has an archway to the luxury, fitted kitchen. The kitchen has a log burning stove with oven, a dining area and great storage in the separate pantry. The very spacious formal lounge has an office study room attached. On this floor there is a bedroom (currently used as a hobby room). There is also a laundry room, wc and a cloakroom. The upper floor has a further 4 bedrooms, they are all double bedrooms and all have fan lights. The spacious master bedroom and the main guest bedrooms have ensuite shower rooms and there is a family bathroom with a bath. The house has lovely outside space including a large south facing courtyard ...
