This substantial country house stands in an elevated position on a hill, about 5 minutes drive from Pinoso, with stunning views of the surrounding countryside. The property includes a huge plot of 39.495m², consisting of a mixture of pine forest, olive grove, some vines and some unfarmed land (previously a vineyard). All the land is irrigated. The property is set to the rear of the land and is in an elevated position to make the most of the stunning views. The area around the house is fenced and contains mature gardens. The driveway is lined with silver birch trees which lead up to the property from a tarmac road. To the front of the house is a 4x8m swimming pool surrounded by palm trees and pines. The house is set over two floors. The lower floor is made up of a very large garage/workshop with a stocked bodega to the rear and a separate toilet, washroom. A door leads through to a huge entertaining room with an enormous open fireplace which can be used for cooking and an American style open plan kitchen. Stairs lead to the upper level, which is the main part of the house, where there are six double bedrooms, two bathrooms, a fully fitted pine kitchen and large lounge with a log burner. From the lounge is a door to a large balcony, terrace with stunning views ...
