Nestling between typical coastal towns and bathed in an enviable tropical climate, this complex comprising of 35 residential homes is unlike any other. Each residence is completely unique and no two are the same. The houses on the complex benefit from a it's very privileged location. It's high viewpoint provides each of the houses with magnificent views of La herradura and the sea. All of this and only five minutes away from the beach. Within the complex there are also magnificent gardens, pools and green areas designed for the enjoyment of both children and adults. The rooms of the house are built on two levels and it includes an underground garage and storage room directly below it. Each of the rooms are finished to a high standard which unlike other developments provide the house with a very homely feel. Many of the rooms lead out on to a spacious terrace which is South-West facing and receives plenty of sunshine. It is the perfect spot for dining whilst taking in the beautiful sunsets and peaceful surroundings. This house offers everything. Traditional architecture whilst at the same time being unique, excellent location, magnificent views, peacefulness, beauty, fantastic facilities. It really is a complex unlike any other and an opportunity not to be ...
