We are very pleased to share this beautiful estate that is just outside of Porto in Aguas Santas. This extraordinary property has been used for weddings, private parties and other festivities within the ample grounds surrounding this 18th century estate. Over the years, the current owner has done some upgrades to the property, to ensure its structural integrity into the 21st century, but he's maintained and kept the original features of the building to accentuate its place over time in Northern Portugal. This property is currently being used as a short-term rental retreat for travellers to come and stay in an authentic Portuguese manor, while still being minutes away from the city centre. The well-kept grounds that surround the buildings give a sense of sanctuary, and the rooms found throughout the buildings each have their own signature. There is an events area that comes equipped with a full commercial kitchen, a tented platform and private entrances for guests that do not intersect private areas. There are even living quarters on-site for full-time service providers to reside. To learn more about this special property, please enquire with us today and request a virtual tour. If you are coming to Porto, then you must book your viewing of this estate ...
