This impressive 2 storey country house is located in a hamlet with stunning views of the surrounding countryside, yet only 5 - 10 minutes drive from the popular town of Pinoso. The front door opens into a wide hallway, to the right is a small sitting room at the front of the house. The hall leads to the main living/dining room, a spacious room with a log burning fireplace. Off the living room is a large ground floor bedroom. There is a kitchen with a larder. The house has a small bathroom with a shower. A rear door leads to a small patio, across the patio is the laundry room, which has another shower and old fashioned w.c. To the left is the entrance to a huge barn, which used to house the animals, just think what you could do with that. Upstairs there is a large room and 3 bedrooms lead off it, all are doubles and one is huge. To the rear of the property is an old olive mill, it still has the original olive press, flagged floor and olive pits. It's a huge space, the roof is falling down here, but could be completely removed to create a spacious courtyard, there is enough room for a pool. This house would benefit from some modernisation and renovation, but is perfectly habitable while the work is done. There are many character features and potential to make t...
