This Masia is a spectacular property located in Agres (Alicante). This place is known for its natural beauty and fresh, clean air, making it the perfect destination for those seeking peace, tranquility, and connection with nature. The farmhouse boasts a privileged location, surrounded by lush vegetation and stunning panoramic views of the area. It also has potable water, electricity, and its own spring, making it perfectly self-sufficient and comfortable in all aspects. Regarding the property itself, it offers an impressive built area of 1,000 square meters and a plot of 18,000 square meters, including a large number of olive trees. The house has 11 bedrooms, each with its own bathroom, making it perfect for accommodating a large family or for turning it into a rural tourism business. The property also has many other features and amenities, such as spacious common areas and a large, fully equipped kitchen for preparing delicious meals with fresh local produce. Additionally, the house has a large terrace that offers stunning mountain views and is perfect for enjoying the sun, tranquility, and nature. In summary, the Masia is a unique property located in one of the most impressive areas of the province of Valencia, offering a unique opportunity to enjoy the n...
