Quietly nestled into the beauty of Arrábida's Natural Park, and with full panoramic ocean views, is a luxurious condominium integrated into the beautiful landscape of Sesimbra. With thoughtful design layouts, the apartments blend contemporary and functional architecture with the natural elements of the surroundings in a perfect balance between quality of life and refinement within simplicity. The condominium includes 46 touristic apartments with full panoramic ocean views and counts with a set of common spaces prepared for residents and their families to enjoy the best Sesimbra has to offer throughout the whole year! In the warmer months enjoy a nice day diving or visit Quinta do Peru only 25 minutes away for an amazing golfing experience. Known for its historical heritage as a picturesque fisherman town, Sesimbra counts with the best marine delicacies the region has to offer often accompanied by a glass of Moscatel de Setúbal produced by Bacalhoa – a winery of the region, known for producing one of the most renowned grape varieties in Portugal by taking advantage of the special climate only this region can provide. Its privileged location near the sea and surrounded by the Serra da Arrábida allows for a multitude of green and commercial spaces to emerge within...
