The property is located on the southwest coast of the island of Madeira, Portugal. It is a set of seven spacious luxury villas located in the privileged area of Arco da Calheta, a region known for its pleasant climate and mild temperature all year round. The property is conveniently situated about 5 minutes from Calheta Beach, which offers easy access to the coastline and the sea. It is only a 25-minute drive to reach the city centre of Funchal, the capital of Madeira Island, where residents have access to a wide range of urban amenities and activities. Madeira Airport is just a 45-minute drive away, making it more practical for residents who travel frequently. The houses offer incredible views over the sea, providing a relaxing and stunning atmosphere for residents to enjoy. The garden with a swimming pool is a standout feature, allowing residents to enjoy leisure time outdoors. In addition, the pool has the option of being heated, enabling use in various seasons. This property has three bedrooms, ensuring enough space for residents and guests. The kitchen is fully equipped, making it easy to prepare meals for family and friends. The living room, equipped with a television, provides a cosy space for entertaining. The barbecue area by the pool offers an oppor...
