Experience the charm and spaciousness of this traditional Algarvian residence, nestled within a lush one-hectare garden in the tranquil Estoi area, offering captivating vistas of the countryside and sea. As you approach the property, a meandering cobblestone driveway leads you to the main house. This unique home boasts an original design inspired by the malta cross, with one of its standout features being the central atrium, presently serving as the divide between the owners large and secluded one-bedroom apartment and the five distinct apartments. Located on the eastern wing of the residence, you will discover five well-appointed one and two-bedroom apartments, each thoughtfully furnished and equipped, with select units featuring connecting doors. All apartments possess independent access and private terraces, providing the potential for effortless conversion into a spacious family home. Additionally, the property includes a separate annex. The property also boasts an inviting expansive pool area, ideal for indulging in the delightful Algarvian climate and relaxation. This property offers boundless opportunities for the discerning buyer and is sold with the apartments fully furnished and equipped. Under the current ownership, a thriving boutique self-caterin...
