This charming villa is situated in a quiet location close to all the amenities of the Reloj area and just a few minutes drive from the town of Fortuna and the famous Fortuna thermal baths. This exclusive urbanisation has fantastic facilities with family and sports in mind. There are 2 community pools, toilets, a cafeteria and restaurant, snack bar, extensive walks and sports and leisure activities. The modern villa has been decorated in a traditional Spanish style and has a lot of character throughout and is bright, sunny and well located. The property is suitable for persons with disabilities as it is on one floor and has extra wide doorways. It features a large country kitchen fitted with hand made wood units and granite worktops. The well proportioned lounge dining room has patio doors to the porch. The very large, wide porch is an idyllic place to spend most of your time relaxing and enjoying the garden. The pretty gardens feature an abundance of mature trees and plants and it has a country feel. The property has 4 bedrooms all with solid wood fitted wardrobes and 2 bathrooms one of which has been specially adapted as a disabled wet room with sliding door and non slip shower tray. There is a laundry room and store and 2 tanks for the collection of rain...
