This is a beautiful old farmhouse, separate bodega and urban land is just 10 minutes from the town of Pinoso and close to the village of Canada del Trigo. The property is undeveloped and ready to be reformed into up to 3 separate dwellings if required. It is situated in a quiet and peaceful area with lovely views. The house has many original features including arches, beamed ceilings and tiled floors. There are 3 double bedrooms on the ground floor, a central lounge and a kitchen with bread oven. A door leads to the courtyard garden with a toilet and laundry room. Stairs lead to the huge upper floor which is ready to develop. The bodega has all original features and there is a further building to the front of the property, along with an urban plot ready for building.
