This stunning newly built town house of over 400m2 is situated in one of the best streets in the affluent town of Pinoso. The property was built to a very high specification and the finishings throughout are superb. The property spans 2 streets and so can be entered from either. One street gives access to the 4 car garage with electric double door. The garage has a fully tiled and the walls are clad with high quality marble. From here is accessed a one bedroom apartment decorated in a traditional Spanish style with a large lounge with wood burning stove, one bedroom with fully fitted wardrobes, shower room and kitchen area. A spiral staircase leads up to the main house which has its principle entry door to the street behind. The main house is distributed over 2 floors and provides an executive, modern family home of outstanding quality. On the ground floor is a large bright lounge with fireplace, a high quality fully fitted kitchen with black granite worktops and a breakfast bar which leads through to the fitted utility room and out into the small internal courtyard. Also on the ground floor is a huge master suite with walk in wardrobe, en suite shower room and 2 Juliet style balconies. There is another smaller bedroom/study and a guest toilet. On the first...
