New to the market is this huge country house that is nearly 400 M2 in build size. The house is in fantastic conditional and kept to a very high standard. This charming country house is situated in a small traditional hamlet of Monovar and just a short drive to Pinoso or Monovar for shopping. There is plenty of history in the hamlet and stunning mountain views all around. On entering the house you step into a light hallway, there is a small downstairs bedroom and then a lovely large living/dining room. Well maintained kitchen, large storage room/pantry, downstairs family bathroom with bath. Summer kitchen with BBQ area, large narrow patio and then a garage and access from the back. The upstairs of the house is beautifully presented with all the traditional beams exposed and varnished. There is 3/4 bedrooms and a bathroom with shower. The master bedroom has a walk in wardrobe. There is another huge part to the house that is in need of renovation. This part would make a great space for an art studio, sewing room, extra accommodation or just extra bedrooms.
