Traditional Andalucian country home with all the elements - terracotta floors, wood beamed ceilings . Set in 18,000m2 plot with amazing panoramic views - just a few minutes outside the historic town of Jimena de la Frontera . Spacious home, which does need some updates. Huge potential ! Constructed in 1999 , this large family home reflects all the trends of the time it was built . Generously proportioned rooms and very reflective of the traditional Andaluz architect. The house has five bedrooms and 3 bathrooms - 1 ensuite . Living room with a wood burning stove , kitchen/diner , larder and a separate utility room . The heart of the house is the picturesque inner courtyard at the centre of the house . South facing garden and terrace overlooking the spectacular mountains of Los Alcornocales and Jimena de la Frontera. Located a mere 2 minutes from the historic village of Jimena de la Frontera. The property is gated and set within an 18000 m2 plot with easy access via a tarmacked road. The land is quite steep in parts and is not really suited to keeping horses .
