This stunning villa in the historic city of Porto is truly a gem to be sought after, it is currently under a full renovation and is expected to be finished by the the end of September. It will have beautifully restored classic features with a fresh and modern finish. Enjoy the art district in one of the many galleries in the area, a great concert in the Casa da Musica or a picturesque walk in the Crystal Palace Gardens. This area has it all and so does this property with a naturally well-lit new indoor pool, gym, air conditioning, central heating, an elevator, a well manicured and sculpted garden, parking both externally and underground large enough to accomodate 9-10 cars, wine cellar and wine tasting room, typical Juliette balconies and outdoor dining and relaxation areas.
