Located in a classical Porto building with a traditional facade, this project presents an excellent ground-floor investment opportunity in uptown Porto. It comes fully furnished with high-end designer furniture, and is a turnkey home in the downtown. Within walking distance to the Praça da República, Trindade Metro Station, Aliados, and the heart of downtown Porto, this completely refurbished building offers the charms of old Porto, with modern-day comforts. Quality finishes are found throughout the apartment, such as Silestone countertops, built-in kitchen appliances, slate accents, or modern suspended bathroom features. Spanning the ground floor and lower level, the apartment provides a large living space, with ample storage, perfect for those looking to maximize their surroundings. On the main floor, we find the social area of the apartment, with a kitchenette, dining area and living room, along with a laundry and bathroom, while on the lower level, we find a lounge and bedroom area, complete with a private bathroom. At street-level, the Rua de Álvares Cabral provides a welcoming backdrop, with wide sidewalks and a repaved surface, further adding to its uptown charm. Whether you are looking to walk right into the action of Porto, or secure an attractive ...
