Luxury and refinement are visible in every detail, from the distribution of spaces to the finishing of all elements. Kitchen furniture, granite stone, upscale appliances make up comfort efficiency in one of the most important areas of a home. With the solar orientation of the building to the East / West, natural light flows between the spaces, with the social area of the room and kitchenette overlooking the Avenida da República, and the private area of the rooms for a quiet and wide patio. The contrast of the oak floor and the white walls create a soft, refined and elegant light. Ref: PP6300
