Tavira Monte was born from a refurbishment of an existing house. This house was carefully enlarged and restored from an old primary school. This primary school was built in 1961 in the Salazarist era, whose founder was the leader Ant3nio de Oliveira Salazar. Thousands of schools were built by Mr. Oliveira Salazar government and this large-scale construction continued until the mid-1960s. Tavira Monte has only one floor with 10 comfortable rooms and with direct access to the swimming pool and garden. All of them have access to a private outdoor terrace protected from the sun by a pergola.
