Amazing, large house in the heart of the town - Oliva - OCTH221500 A lovely location at the base of the church steps by Santa Maria. This corner property has lots of natural light and a great roof terrace. The front door opens to a large entrance hall, this has a few stairs down to a bedroom / office or lounge. A room with lots of storage and access to the garage and ground floor toilet. This can be classified as commercial space if you wanted to open a business. The first floor offers a large corner lounge / dining room with large windows and Juliet balconies all round. There is a large kitchen / breakfast room with a lovely little balcony overlooking the street. There is a bathroom on this floor. The second floor offers a master bedroom with en-suite, another very large double with a little balcony and a shower room. The top floor, has a good size terrace with a summer kitchen and views of the church. The property is in immaculate condition and being sold fully furnished, with all white goods. An unbeatable location!
