Townhouse with big garden & fabulous views - Oliva - OCTH230100 Large house with stunning views and a 50m2 garden in the old town. This property is a blank canvas, with the hard work already having been done, as the property has had the electricity cabling replaced, along with the water piping and a new gas hot-water boiler. The front door opens to several large reception rooms & through to the kitchen areas, with plenty of natural light. There is a bathroom and utility room also on the ground floor. The bathroom has been renovated, while the kitchen needs an upgrade at a later date, but the house is already perfectly functional. Stairs lead to the first floor, with two really good size double bedrooms with high ceilings, and one which could have a lovely private terrace. The middle room has no natural light but could be an office or converted into a bathroom on this floor. The main selling point of this property is the large garden, which is almost impossible to find in Oliva. There is a large fig tree which will provide shade in the summer months. The garden has high walls, making it ideal for pet-owners. On top of that, the roof terrace is a good size and has spectacular all round views over Oliva and down to the sea. The house is north-south facing...
