Lovely home - good location - fabulous views - Oliva - OCTH230400 Looking for a move in ready property close to San Roque square with fabulous views.....this is it! The front door opens to a hallway with a double / twin bedroom to the left. We continue through into a small seating area and on to the kitchen, with a split level dining area. From here there is a small utility area with access to the shower room, a large double bedroom and a single bedroom or store room. Stairs lead us to a lounge area, with a large double bedroom to the front with hot & cold air conditioning. A cosy reading room is towards the rear with a second shower room. We access the terrace via the summer kitchen and here we have a little conservatory space. The mid terrace is a good size and very private. The stairs lead us to a good size roof terrace with fabulous views to the sea, the churches, castle and the cross for that ever important winter sun! The property is being sold furnished, the bedrooms have remote control ceiling fans.....the only thing you might want to consider at some point is a re-wire if you were living permanently. Viewing recommended!
