Option for rent to buy on this property. This charming character property is located within walking distance of the town centre of Alguena and around 45 minutes to the beautiful beaches of Alicante. The property is at the end of a row of houses and the garden grounds are fenced and gated. The property has been renovated to the highest standard, and includes many quality original features. The built-in wardrobes are handmade, there are beamed ceilings and arched doorways. To the side of the house is a very big summer kitchen and garage which could be converted into further accommodation. Upstairs there is a very large master suite with a terrace and Juliet balconies. There is an opulent bathroom and a further double bedroom. The property has mains water and electric and oil-fired central heating. The spacious lounge/diner has an open fire and air conditioning. The traditional style kitchen is hand-made and has granite worktops and has a separate utility room. The house has 4 double bedrooms.
